

Avalon Running/Hiking Maps

Country Club Loop/Descanso

Moderate (flat to uphill climb)

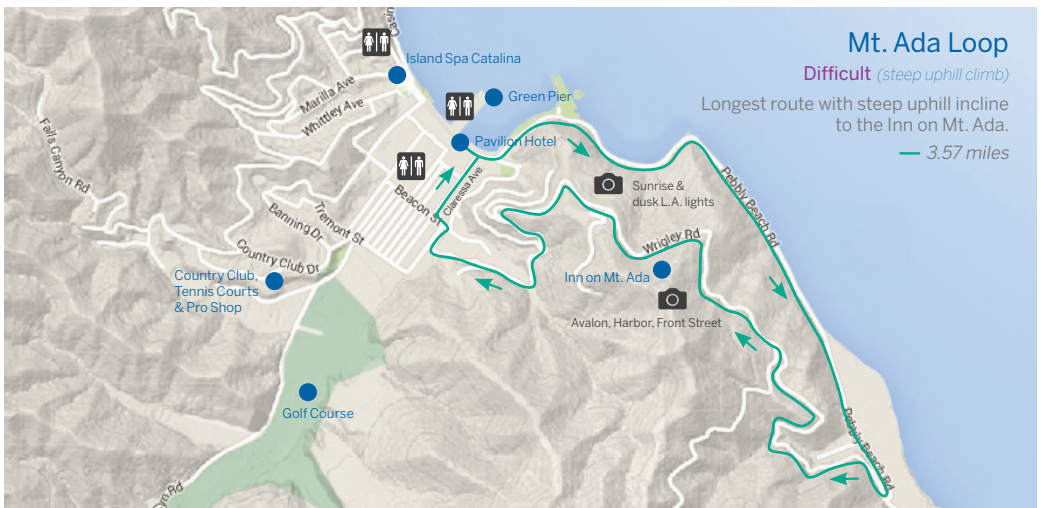

Difficult start uphill but the views of Avalon will make the battle worth it. Then, it's smooth sailing back down to Island Spa Catalina.

— 1.43 miles

Round-trip from Island Spa Catalina to Descanso Beach Club.

--- Additional .94 miles

The Catalina Country Club was originally built for the Chicago Cubs, who were at the time owned by William Wrigley, Jr. At the Country Club, brick steps lead to spectacular views of Avalon and the Pacific Ocean, as well as a corridor with colorful Catalina tile.

Mt. Ada Loop

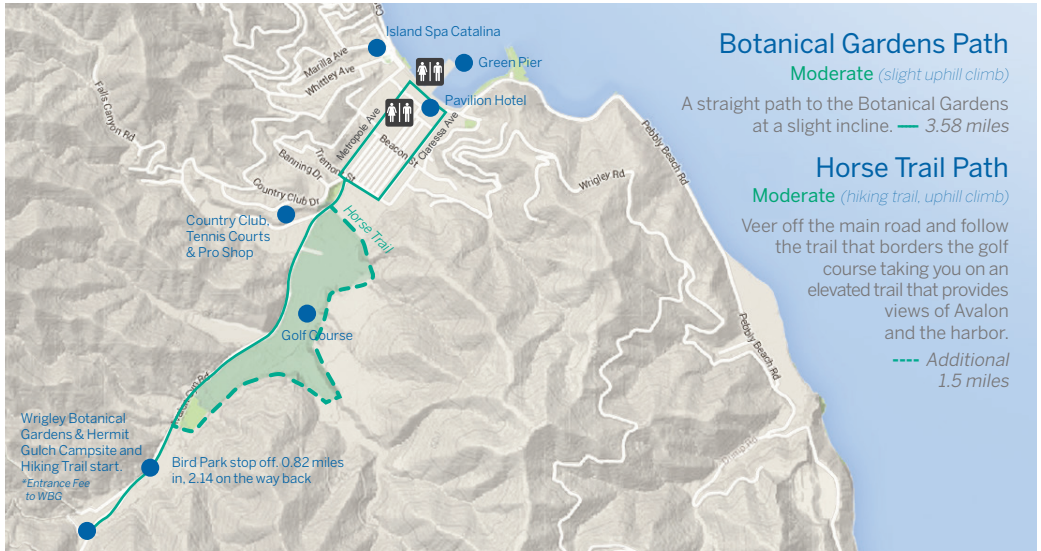

Difficult (steep uphill climb)

Longest route with steep uphill incline to the Inn on Mt. Ada.

— 3.57 miles

The Inn on Mt. Ada was built by William Wrigley, Jr. for his wife, Ada. The mountain top on which the home was built features breathtaking views of Catalina Island and Avalon Bay. The home is the first to receive morning sunlight and the last to see it go as the sun sets.

Avalon Running/Hiking Maps

Botanical Gardens Path

Moderate (slight uphill climb)

A straight path to the Botanical Gardens at a slight incline. — 3.58 miles

Horse Trail Path

Moderate (hiking trail, uphill climb)

Veer off the main road and follow the trail that borders the golf course taking you on an elevated trail that provides views of Avalon and the harbor.

--- Additional 1.5 miles

The idea for the gardens came from Ada Wrigley, William Wrigley, Jr.'s wife. Catalina Island's marine climate made it possible to showcase plants from all corners of the earth. The gardens place a special emphasis on California island endemic plants.

Catalina Chimes Tower via Hogsback Trail

Moderate (uphill to flat terrain)

Moderate incline through the streets of Avalon; route features a set of stairs and long uphill incline.

— 2.31 miles

— & --- 3.30 miles

--- Easy solo run / extension route

One of the most charming features of Avalon is the iconic Chimes Tower. In 1925, Ada Wrigley purchased the Deagan Westminster chimes for the community of Avalon and had a tower built to house them. It was her hope that the melodic chimes would sound across the town for years to come.