Rules and Tips

- No motorized vehicles, except wheelchairs, are allowed.
- No alcoholic beverages or illegal drugs are allowed.
- No littering or illegal dumping is allowed.
- Boardwalks are very slippery when wet. Watch out for water and mud on the path, especially in low spots.
- Keep pets on leashes and pick up after your pet.
- Heavy rains, particularly in the spring, may flood portions of the Rivergreenway, making these sections temporarily unusable.
- Be cautious on pathway curves and underpasses.
- Ride bicycles recreationally. Do not race.
- Bicyclists should wear helmets.
- Yield to traffic, especially at intersections.
- Faster users should yield to slower users.
- Ride, skate, walk and run on the right. Pass on the left. Do not block the trail.
- Do not mark on pathways for races or walks.
- Bicyclists should use a bell or other sounding device when overtaking slower bicycles or pedestrians, or give an audible warning such as "Passing on your left."
- Report unsafe trail conditions to 260-427-6400.
- Always carry a cell phone for emergency use.
- Respect private property that adjoins the pathways.

Explanation of Mile Markers	Distances
The zero mile marker of the St. Marys River Pathway, the St. Joseph River Pathway and the Maumee River Pathway is at the confluence of the three rivers by the City of Fort Wayne's Water Filtration Plant. Each mile along these three pathways is marked with a 6- by 12-inch granite marker on the side of the path. Each one-quarter mile is marked with a line and stand mark on the side of the path. The Circle of Hope, the West Jefferson Trail and the St. Joe Boulevard Pathway do not have mileage markers.	5.75 MILES Three Rivers Confluence to North River Road Trailhead
